

QUESTIONS FOR TEACHERS, PRINCIPALS, AND DISTRICTS

As parents, we want our children to thrive in school. How do we make that happen? Here are three starter questions every parent can and should ask their child's teacher:

HOW will you keep me informed about how my child is doing at school?

WHAT can I do to support my child's learning at home?

WHEN will I have opportunities to connect with you and share my thoughts?

As parents, we want our children leave school prepared for what's next. How do we make that happen? Here are three starter questions every parent can and should ask their child's principal:

HOW are you making sure children like mine are getting a high-quality education every day?

WHAT are your goals for this school year?

WHEN can I expect to hear updates from you, and through what kind of channels?

As parents, we want our schools to be places all children can become the people they want to be. How do we make that happen? Here are three starter questions every parent can and should ask their child's district leaders:

HOW is the district partnering with families and the community?

WHAT resources are available to help me learn about district-level policies?

WHEN will I have opportunities to share my ideas for our schools?
